About Us

The Vintage Sparrow is a jewelry and apparel company that inspires women to live with confidence, courage, passion, and purpose. At TVS, we are on a mission to see women empowered through believing the truth about their God-given identity and purpose. We do this by inspiring them with appare and accessories designed with their hope and future in mind.

Each design is prayerfully created and carefully crafted to remind women of the powerful truth that they are loved, valued, brave, and beautiful.

“I have ordered multiple times from The Vintage Sparrow and cannot keep these beautiful items in stock! “
-Dari with Shyne Collective

Hi friends! My name is Annie and I'm so glad you're here!

I am a wife, miracle mama, communicator, creator, and business owner. One of my greatest desires is to see other women live confident and courageous in who God designed them to be. From the jewelry and apparel I design, to the writing or content I share, my hope is that women will be reminded of their identity of who God says they are. We are all placed on this Earth with great purpose by our Creator, and I love to create and share things that remind you of this truth. Any time you wear your Vintage Sparrow design I pray it reminds you of who and whose you are!

xx Annie
