STORY

In the Bible Jesus tells his disciples to come to Him like little children; open to possibility, with curiosity and questions. He told them that children are our future. With perfect love they love, forgiving quickly, and cherishing every moment. In the painting Perfect Love by Del Parson we see Christ welcoming children with a smile and open arms. They sit at his feet and listen to his stories. May we follow His example of perfect love toward all we encounter. Havenlight | Let Art Be Your Voice

STORY

The painting Faith to Prepare by Liz Lemon Swindle portrays David selecting stones for his battle against Goliath. The Bible tells us that the Isrealite nation was in a battle with the Philistine people. Goliath was the champion for the Philistines. He challenged the Isrealite people daily and all the men were affraid of him. Who shall we send as our chamopion, asked King Saul. David, a young boy of about 12 years old, volunteered. With his leather sling, a single small stone, and great faith in God, David slayed the giant. This image reminds us that we can do the same with a bit of faith and preperation.

In the Bible, we read that Matthew, Jesus, and other disciples were in a boat on the sea when a great wind came and the boat started to toss violently. Jesus continued to sleep. The men aboard panicked and woke Jesus for help. Matthew 8:26 says "Then he arose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm." Can you imagine? They were terrified, unsure if they would live through the storm. We will face trials in this life. There will be times when the sea is raging around us. It may feel as if we are destined to fail, that the storms are too great and we are helpless. This painting by Howard Lyon depicts a range of emotions that we can all relate to. We often try to save ourselves, but when we turn to the Lord, He will save us and we will hear those magnificent words spoken in our hearts: "Peace, be still."

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these alittle ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the aSon of man is come to bsave that which was clost.

12 How think ye? if a man have an hundred asheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these alittle ones should bperish. (Matthe

STORY

Early in His ministry, the Savior called His disciples to go forth and preach his word. Many were fishermen, with little money. They must have worried how they would provide for themselves and their families as they left to go and preach. Calming their fears Jesus said, "Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses... for the workman is worthy of his meat." - Matthew 10:9-10

The Savior, nearing the end of his life, could again sense the fear growing in his disciples. He reminded them, "When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing." - Luke 22:35

We live in times of great uncertainty when the necessities of life seem harder to come by and where the burden of providing for our families seems heavier than in days past. This painting reassures me that although the road may be rough, when we walk with Him we need not worry for in Christ we lack nothing.

STORY

When Yongsung Kim first envisioned The Hand of God painting, he was imagining a new perspective of Jesus Christ as He was reaching with His hand to save Peter from drowning. Most paintings that depict this story paint the scene from a third-person perspective. Instead, Yongsung Kim decided to paint The Hand of God painting from Peter's first-person perspective. And because Yongsung Kim chose this first-person perspective it makes The Hand of God painting all the more relatable and empowering, because it connects us to the Savior at a much deeper level. The Hand of God painting by Yongsung Kim does this because we are imagining that Jesus Christ is reaching down with His hand to personally save us from drowning.

And because of the amazing Hand of God painting by Yongsung Kim, we have created many additional products with this incredible picture of Christ. One of these products is a puzzle that will help you always remember Christ's helping hands and saving grace.

Through The Hand of God puzzle, Yongsung Kim gives each of us hope, comfort and peace. Each of us have failed

STORY

In the Bible, Luke 8:40-48 tells of a woman who bled for twelve years. She had seen many doctors and still had not been healed. The woman was utterly hopeless. Her town's people were buzzing with talk of Jesus Christ who healed the sick, blind, and lame. She wondered if he could help her. As she walked toward Jesus there was a great crowd of people pressing in to see him. In the painting Touch of Faith, Liz Lemon Swindle paints the woman who said to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be healed." In a moment of bravery and faith, she reached out her hand. Then suddenly she was healed. Jesus said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer; your faith has made you well. Go in peace."
